Coface France is recognized as the Best Credit Insurance Company in 2019 by International Finance Magazine

Participating in this prestigious award for the first time, Coface France took the highest step on the podium, acknowledging the many initiatives deployed by Coface to better assist its customers.

Since 2013, the International Finance Awards have been recognising talented actors around the world who are making a positive impact on the global economy. Among the categories selected is the insurance industry, where competition has stimulated innovation for better management of trade, equipment, human resources, and income risks. Through this award, the International Finance Insurance Awards aim to reward those who strive to protect the interests of their clients on a daily basis.

Coface France, best credit insurance company 2019

In 2019, Coface France was honoured for its remarkable ability to adapt assess risk trends.

"Over the years, Coface has proven its uniqueness in credit insurance and risk management. We are now recognized as a reference in our market. This award shows that we are continuing to set the pace for the market by providing new services, that are adapted to the economy of both today and tomorrow," commented Antonio Marchitelli, Director of Coface France and Western Europe. "Our worldwide team's implication, as well as the trust and recognition from our clients, pushes us to innovate beyond credit insurance. The recent launches of new offers – such as 'Coface Collect', 'Supply Check', and 'Check and Collect' – highlight our will to develop our range of solutions and to support companies' activity, while also enabling them to develop a solvent customer base and helping them to protect their supply chain."
